This half-day workshop on Pulling Together in Teams is presented by Jill Nicholson who is the Principal of Advance Your Business. Jill is a registered social worker with 36 years experience in the health and human services field—mostly focussed on leading and managing staff, planning and resolving challenges, and, providing supervision to managers. This half day workshop will focus on the foundations of an effective team—both processes and team member behaviours.

Who should attend?

This training is designed specifically for staff in health and human services.

Content

- Building blocks for effective team processes
- Using a code to guide team member behaviour
- The 5 dysfunctions of teams

Learning Outcomes

Learning will be through presentation of material with accompanying participant notes, self-reflection, group discussion and practising new skills in small groups. In particular, participants will take away:

- Strategies that will enhance the capacity of team members to work well together
- An understanding of the team behaviours that encourage active team participation to get the work of the team done
